November Adult Programs

Tales for the Tabloids with Myrna Goldberger: Thurs., Nov. 3 @ 1:30-2:30 pm

An educator-lecturer for the Lifelong Learning Society of Florida Atlantic University, Myrna Goldberger has over 50 years experience in education and educational entertainment. Her lecture focuses on stories of people and events that aroused our curiosity and triggered our emotions. From the story of Charles Ponzi to the story of Mary Pinchot Meyer (JFK's lover) to the case of Gerald Chapman and more--these tales are fodder for the tabloids and examples of "Edutainment." Room: PR

Author Tim Dorsey: When Elves Attack: Monday, November 7 @ 3:30-4:30 pm

Tim Dorsey, New York Times bestselling author, offers the perfect antidote for all those sappy feel-good holiday stories with this zany blockbuster extravaganza, When Elves Attack, in which his wonderfully deranged serial killer Floridaphile delivers his special brand of Christmas cheer. More outrageous than Santa Claus in a Speedo, When Elves Attack serves up a Yuletide feast of the "pure gonzo humor!" The author who was raised in Riviera Beach and lives in Tampa, has written more than 12 books.

Great Books: Monday, November 14 & 28 @ 10-11:45 am

Partake in interesting discussions after reading selections chosen by the Great Books Foundation. The readings are rich in ideas and provoke engaging discussions. The group meets the second and fourth Mondays of each month. A complete program list is available at the Boynton Beach City Library or at www.boyntonlibrary.org. Room: CA
