November Youth Programs

Families Reading Together Kick-Off Event: Mon., Nov. 7 @ 10—11:30 am

Celebrate Families Reading Together month with Mayor Jose Rodriguez of the City of Boynton Beach! After the Mayor reads the funny tale, Book! Book! Book! by Deborah Bruss, make a craft. The Families Reading Together literacy campaign reminds families about the importance of sharing books and stories with each other. All ages. Room: PR

Feel the Beat of a Drumline: Tues., Nov. 29 @ 6:45—7:30 pm

Celebrate International Drumming Month by listening to a drumming presentation by the Boynton Beach Community High School Drumline. All ages. Room: PR

Book Gabbers Book Discussion: Mon., Nov. 14 @ 6:30—7:30 pm

Alec, who is studying to be a master sleuth with his sidekick Gina, has a mystery to solve in his own home town. The Christopher Columbus exhibit has gone missing from the museum and Alec is determined to find out who took it. Find out how Alec, Gina and their fourth grade history class unravel this mystery in the book The Nina, the Pinta and the Vanishing Treasure: An Alec Flint Mystery by Jill Santopolo. Snacks will be provided at the book discussion. Limited to 12 participants. Registration required. Pick up a copy of the book at the Youth Services Desk. Grades 3-5. Room: YPR

Dance to Your Own Beat: Thurs., Nov. 3 @ 10—11 am

Engage in fun exercises and dance movements using scarves, musical instruments and a parachute. Ages 1-5 years old. Room: YSA

Learn with Legos® @ Your Library: Wed., Nov. 2 @ 10—11 am
